OTHER INFORMATION

TRANSPORT

The nearest train stations from Llantwit Major are in Barry (9 miles – a Valleys Line station) and Bridgend (9 miles – on the First Great Western London to Swansea -via Cardiff- train route).

The airport is approximately 5 miles from Llantwit Major. There's a very limited bus service to Llantwit Major and slightly more frequent buses to Cowbridge, Barry and Bridgend all from Cardiff.

Llantwit Major is a small town and this part of the Vale is fairly rural and we'd recommend getting around by car or taxi.

The traffic on the M4 (the main motorway in and out of South Wales) through Newport and Cardiff can get really busy especially if there's football on in Cardiff so leave plenty of time.

Llantwit Major is approximately 30-40 minutes drive from Junction 33 of the M4.
